

CHÂTEAU LÉCUYER

PRODUIT

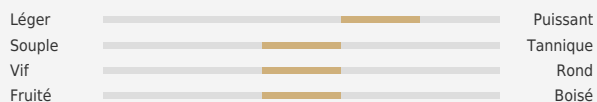

The 2021 Château Lécuyer displays a dark and brilliant, almost purple color, which heralds a beautiful body.

The nose displays a good balance between ripe red fruits, a hint of plum, floral nuances, and a light, well-integrated oak.

On the palate, it expresses itself elegantly: silky tannins, a soft yet firm structure, juicy fruit supported by a mouth-watering freshness, and beautiful depth and length.

A Pomerol that is both charming now and also offers excellent aging potential.
