

CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD

PRODUIT

The 2005 Château Mouton Rothschild is an exceptional wine produced in the Pauillac appellation, in the heart of the Médoc region. This vintage comes from an atypical climatic year, with slightly cooler temperatures and a marked drought between April and September, favoring optimal grape concentration. The harvest took place between September 21 and October 6 under ideal conditions. The wine is made from a blend of 85% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Merlot, and 1% Cabernet Franc, offering remarkable tannic structure and excellent aging potential.

The label design was entrusted to artist Giuseppe Penone, adding an artistic dimension to this grand cru.

The 2005 Château Mouton Rothschild presents a deep, dark, almost black color, reflecting its youth. On the nose, it displays impressive aromatic complexity, blending notes of ripe black fruits, cedar, tobacco, exotic spices, chocolate, and cedar. On the palate, it offers a firm and elegant tannic structure, supported by lively acidity and marked minerality. The finish is long and persistent, with a sensation of freshness and purity.
