

CROZES-HERMITAGE - DOMAINE DE THALABERT 'MULE BLANCHE'

PRODUIT

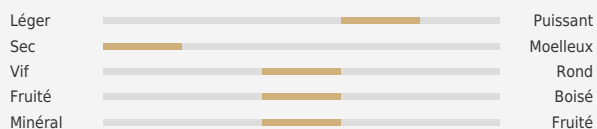

Paul Jaboulet Aîné's Crozes-Hermitage « Domaine Mule Blanche » white is an iconic cuvée, produced from a historic vineyard located on the southern slopes of the Crozes-Hermitage appellation.

The vines, aged between 20 and 40 years old, benefit from a clay-limestone terroir enriched with rounded pebbles, providing optimal southern exposure that promotes perfect grape ripeness.

This elegant and structured white wine expresses a subtle harmony between aromatic richness and mineral freshness, characteristic of the estate's rigorous expertise. On the nose, it reveals refined notes of ripe white fruits, citrus, and flowers, while on the palate, it is distinguished by a rounded texture and a balanced liveliness that lends a long finish.

The Crozes-Hermitage « Domaine Mule Blanche » white delicately accompanies grilled fish, seafood and poultry dishes, fully revealing the unique expression of the Crozes-Hermitage terroir.
