

GIVRY

PRODUIT

Located in Givry, in the heart of the Côte Chalonnaise, Domaine de la Ferté embodies the elegance and precision of the great Pinot Noirs of southern Burgundy. Owned by the Devillard family, the estate benefits from carefully cultivated clay-limestone terroirs, which produce wines that are expressive, refined, and structured. Each vintage reflects rigorous work in the vineyard, vinification that respects the fruit, and controlled aging, designed to reveal the full depth of the grape variety. The reds are distinguished by their aromas of fresh red fruits, delicate flowers, and sweet spices, carried by a silky and balanced structure. Domaine de la Ferté produces authentic wines, accessible young but with great aging potential, perfect for lovers of Burgundy with a pure and refined style.
