

CORNAS "LES GRANDES TERRASSES"

PRODUIT

Paul Jaboulet Aîné's Cornas « Les Grandes Terrasses » red is an exceptional cuvée from the northern Rhône Valley, produced on steep slopes overlooking the village of Cornas. The vines, planted on the hillside on decomposing granite soils called « gore, » benefit from a full southern exposure and are cultivated on terraces supported by traditional low walls. This pure Syrah reveals an intense nose of ripe black fruits, leather, licorice, and black pepper, with smoky touches characteristic of the terroir. On the palate, the wine is powerful and deep, with a strong structure, dense tannins, and a long finish with mineral and spicy accents. A cuvée with strong aging potential, « Les Grandes Terrasses » pairs perfectly with roast meats, game, or rich and flavorful dishes in sauce.
