

DOMAINE DIDIER DAGUENEAU - SILEX

PRODUIT

Silex is the estate's flagship cuvée, produced from the purest flint soils around Saint-Andelain. This wine impresses with its depth, precision, and mineral tension. The nose evokes candied citrus, exotic fruits, floral notes, and an intense smoky touch. On the palate, the texture is straightforward, powerful, and chiseled, with an exceptionally long finish. This is a wine with great ageing potential, capable of evolving for 20 years or more. Its aromatic purity and structure make it a great white wine for gastronomy. It pairs well with noble dishes such as turbot, lobster, or truffled dishes. An absolute benchmark for Sauvignon Blanc.
