

CHÂTEAU PHÉLAN SÉGUR

PRODUIT

Presentation

Located on the splendid gravelly soils of Saint-Estèphe, Château Phélan Ségur has produced a remarkably balanced cuvée with the 2020 vintage. The blend harmoniously combines Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, and a touch of Petit Verdot, bringing depth and complexity. This great wine expresses all the nobility of the terroir and the estate's expertise, combining Bordeaux tradition and modern precision.

Elegant, distinguished, and of exemplary purity, it stands out as one of the finest achievements of its appellation.

Tasting

The deep purple color precedes a seductive nose of black fruits, cedar, and sweet spices. On the palate, the texture is velvety, the tannins are very fine and perfectly integrated. The dense and vibrant fruit is accompanied by a mineral freshness typical of Saint-Estèphe. The long and harmonious finish reveals beautiful tension and impressive aging potential. A wine of balance and refinement, promising great tasting moments.
