

HERMITAGE "LE CHEVALIER DE STÉRIMBERG"

PRODUIT

The Hermitage Blanc « Le Chevalier de Stérimberg » from Paul Jaboulet Aîné is an exceptional cuvée, a true emblem of the Hermitage appellation in the northern Rhône Valley. This wine embodies the region's historical heritage, inspired by the knight Gaspard de Stérimberg, who is said to have planted the first vines on the Hermitage hill in the Middle Ages. Carefully crafted, this white combines power and finesse with remarkable elegance.

It embodies the refined expertise of Domaine Paul Jaboulet Aîné and the unique expression of the granite terroir of the Hermitage hill. Whether for immediate enjoyment or extended cellaring, this wine will delight discerning lovers of fine white wines, offering complexity, freshness, and length on the palate.
