

BOURGOGNE ALIGOTÉ

PRODUIT

Coming from the hills of Burgundy, the Aligoté grape variety is a regional treasure often overshadowed by Chardonnay, but here it reveals all its freshness and vivacity. Bourgogne Aligoté from Maison Joseph Drouhin is a straightforward, crisp, and delicately fruity wine. It offers aromas of citrus fruits such as lemon and grapefruit, accompanied by subtle floral notes and a light mineral touch. On the palate, its beautiful natural acidity brings tone and balance, while maintaining great finesse. It is an ideal wine for an aperitif, but also an excellent companion to seafood, oysters, or light dishes. Served chilled, it perfectly embodies the Drouhin style: precise, pure, and respectful of the terroir.
